

Data Protection / GDPR (Parent email)

What is the General Data Protection Regulation? (GDPR)

The GDPR is a new regulation by which the European Parliament, the Council of the European Union and the European Commission intend to strengthen and unify data protection for all individuals within the European Union, aiming to give control back to citizens and residents over their personal data.

The GDPR comes into effect from 25th May 2018.

Taking data security and privacy seriously

At Tudor Grange Academies Trust, we take data security and privacy extremely seriously and believe that the GDPR is an important step forward for clarifying and enabling individual privacy rights, as such we are committed to maintaining compliance with the GDPR.

We are the first Multi-Academy Trust to have signed up to the 360data Framework and are undertaking a comprehensive GDPR audit to ensure the data handling best practice is being followed by our staff.

Privacy Notices

We also have updated a number of key policies that cover in detail how we handle and manage data:

- Consent Forms
- Privacy notice for parents/carers
- Privacy notice for pupils
- Subject access request
