Apprenticeships: A subject snapshot guide for teachers

What is an apprenticeship?

Apprentices are employed in a job and paid a salary, whilst undertaking training to support the development of their skills. Apprentices will spend at least 20% of their paid time completing 'off-the-job' training where they will be supported by a training provider to achieve their apprenticeship. Apprenticeships are available to anyone over the age of 16, living in England and have no upper age limit. To find more please visit the government website:

<https://www.apprenticeships.gov.uk/apprentices/becoming-apprentice>

Which apprenticeships are there?

Art and Design links to lots of apprenticeships because so many jobs require an individual to be creative and to use light and colour to engage their customers. Some of the more obvious job roles might be in art galleries or museums, but have you also thought about how it might link to other jobs like digital marketing, beauty and make-up, architecture, broadcasting and community arts?

Which apprenticeship employers are there?

There are lots of employers offering apprenticeships that link to Art and Design. Some of the biggest names you might recognise are:

Apprenticeships: A subject snapshot guide for teachers

What is an apprenticeship?

Apprentices are employed in a job and paid a salary, whilst undertaking training to support the development of their skills. Apprentices will spend at least 20% of their paid time completing 'off-the-job' training where they will be supported by a training provider to achieve their apprenticeship. Apprenticeships are available to anyone over the age of 16, living in England and have no upper age limit. To find more please visit the government website:

<https://www.apprenticeships.gov.uk/apprentices/becoming-apprentice>

Which apprenticeships are there?

Physical Education (PE) links to lots of apprenticeships because so many job roles require an individual to have excellent team work skills and communication. Some of the more obvious job roles might be working as a PE Teacher or within a Leisure Centre, but have you also thought about how it might link to other jobs like Operational Firefighter, Policing, Senior Equine Groom, Youth Worker and HM Forces?

Which apprenticeship employers are there?

There are lots of employers offering apprenticeships that link to Physical Education. Some of the biggest names you might recognise are:
