

Tudor Grange Samworth Academy

SCIENCE TEACHING is good when...

Children lead their own learning

We activate prior knowledge to check understanding before moving on to new learning

We link practical learning with memorable experiences

Lessons are fun and engaging

Children are comfortable to ask why

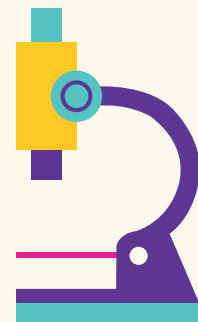

Children are inquisitive

The children remember what they were taught

Learning is 'hands on' and immersive

There are enough resources and they all work